

8-Day Immersive Culture Safari: Central, Eastern & Northern Uganda

8 Days / 7 Nights

FROM $1,395 PER PERSON, SHARING

This is a culture-first itinerary rather than a game-park circuit — built for a traveler who wants to meet Uganda's people as much as its wildlife. It moves from the Buganda Kingdom's royal sites in Kampala, east to the Sebei community at Sipi Falls, and north to the Karamoja region to meet the Dodoth, one of Uganda's last semi-nomadic pastoralist communities.

Journey Highlights

- ♦ A full day on the Buganda Royal Mile — Kabaka's Lubiri Palace, the Bulange Parliament and the Kasubi Royal Tombs, a UNESCO World Heritage Site
- ♦ A hands-on Baganda cultural immersion — food-garden harvesting, a traditional cooking session and barkcloth-making (okukomaga)
- ♦ The three-tiered Sipi Falls, with a guided hike and an authentic Sebei coffee farm visit from crop to cup
- ♦ A rare cultural encounter with the Dodoth people of Karamoja, one of Uganda's most traditional pastoralist communities

Day by Day

- 1 DAY Arrival in Entebbe
Met on arrival at Entebbe International Airport and transferred to Kampala for a restful first night, with no activities planned.
- 2 DAY The Buganda Royal Mile
A full day exploring the seat of the Buganda Kingdom, Uganda's largest: Lubiri Palace in Mengo, the Kabaka's manmade lake, the Bulange Parliament and the Kasubi Royal Tombs. The afternoon is spent with a local family learning traditional food preparation and barkcloth-making, with the option to taste a meal cooked in the traditional style.
- 3 DAY Transfer to Sipi Falls
A scenic drive east across the Nile into Sebei country, with a stop at a roadside market en route. The evening closes with Sebei cultural entertainment at the lodge.
- 4 DAY Sipi Falls & a Sebei Coffee Farm
A guided hike across the three tiers of Sipi Falls, followed by a visit to an authentic Sebei homestead for a full crop-to-cup coffee experience — harvesting, drying, roasting and grinding.
- 5 DAY Transfer to Karamoja
A five-hour drive north to Moroto, in Uganda's remote Karamoja region — a rest day with no activities, allowing time to settle in ahead of the cultural encounter to follow.
- 6 DAY The Dodoth of Karamoja
A day spent with the Dodoth people, semi-nomadic hunters and herders of the Karamoja plains — among the least-visited communities in Uganda.
- 7 DAY Return to Kampala
A full day's drive back to Kampala, with stops en route to break up the journey.
- 8 DAY Departure
Transfer to Entebbe International Airport for departure.
